Dear Senator Douglas:

Thank you for your letter of 20 May 1957 concerning Mrs. _____

We have no record of any previous application from Mrs. _____ either under her maiden name or her present name. We would be happy to consider an application from Mrs. _____ however, if she chooses to submit one. The Office of Personnel, 2430 "E" Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., will supply forms and other pertinent information on request.

The prospects for employment as an investigator for this Agency are not promising, but you may be assured that Mrs. _____ qualifications will be carefully assessed in the light of possible openings if her application is received.

Your interest in this Agency is appreciated.

Sincerely,

OP/CS/rlb (24 May 57)

(EXECUTIVE RECORD) FILE _____

ER 9 - 3732/A

Honorable Paul H. Douglas
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Douglas:

Thank you for your letter of 20 May 1957 concerning
Mrs. [REDACTED]

We have no record of any previous application from Mrs. [REDACTED] either under her maiden name or her present name. We would be glad to consider an application from her but the prospects of our being able to employ her as an investigator are slim.

Our present recruitment activity is concerned mostly with clerical and junior officer candidates. Opportunities for more experienced individuals in the middle and higher grade brackets are infrequent. We do not wish to encourage undue interest on Mrs. [REDACTED] part by inviting her to submit application forms at this time. However, if she would like us to explore all possibilities for her, we will send her the necessary forms.

Your interest in referring qualified candidates to us is appreciated. In spite of the unfavorable outlook in this case, we will be pleased to give Mrs. [REDACTED] application every consideration if she elects to file with us.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
